The content is very good and I like the topics on food and sensory, as well as those covering advanced technology to process bioplastics.

- Mr Emmanuel Jimenez
Senior Product Manager
First in Colours Incorporated

We have been supporting Ringier Events' conferences around Asia and I would say we are glad that we had the opportunity to be in Manila where we expect more local companies to take advantage of the production solutions we offer.

- Mr Dave Fung
Director, LK Machinery

The Summit featured a good blend of topics - and these topics ranged from the basic to applied. It's focused on target companies and covered the life cycle from raw materials to finished products. I'm glad that Ringier Events brought this Summit to the Philippines because the industry needs technical summits like this and I will definitely recommend this to those in the industry.

- Dr Lotis Francisco
President
Philippine Association of Food Technologists, Inc.

The event is important and a good start. I noticed that the Summit has a substantial audience, too. It is important to first raise awareness so that people can go into doable action. I think we're doing it well as a first step and I hope that the industry through this conference will understand a lot more the problem that we have on hand because they are key to finding solutions especially in the packaging industry. I would be happy to join future Ringier conferences.

- Mr Crispian Lao
National Solid Waste Management Commission, Commissioner and Vice Chairman

I find the conference very informative. Since it's very specific to the F&B industry, the guest speakers were well targeted in their topics, particularly in addressing issues not just on food packaging - such as its functions - but as a wholistic approach with the inclusion of topics on waste management and emerging technologies. Overall, it gives everyone an update on what's going on in the industry.

- Ms. Ma. Zyra Mae Oliman
Bio-plastics Division Manager
L&E International, Ltd

Thank you very much Beng, Timothy, Mike and Ringier Trade for inviting us to present the Energy Management Solutions and Power Quality Solutions that has significant role on energy conservation and efficient utilization on plastics and packaging production. We appreciate very much this valued opportunity to meet up with you and with delegates. 下午7:38

~Doddie Householder

It was a pleasure and my honor to host and emcee the First Plastics Summit in the Philippines. I look forward to next successful conference. ~Doddie Householder

The event is great and very useful specially for those involved in R&D for food and beverages to be able to enhance the quality of plastic packaging. If Ringier has other events outside the Philippines, we would be interested to join.

- Mr. Antonio del Rio
Food Technologist
Industrial Technology Development Institute

It certainly met our expectations in terms of attendance and inquiries as we hope to have more clients in this part of Southeast Asia.

- Mr Vincent Liao
Sales Director
Ever Polymer Co Ltd

It was a summit with full of leaning and open opportunities for everyone. I am hoping that the event organisers will hold another event like this in the future and invite us or update us with future events.
